This is to certify that Ms. Karuna Anie Kosle has been actively associated with Asha Welfare Society as a volunteer educator, mentor, and community outreach contributor from May 2022 to the present.

Throughout her involvement with the organization, she has dedicated significant time to supporting educational initiatives for students from underserved communities. She has worked primarily with students from Grades 4 through 9, providing academic assistance in subjects including English, Mathematics, and Science. During active program periods, she regularly dedicated approximately 15 hours per week to teaching, mentoring, and supporting students in their academic development.

In addition to her teaching responsibilities, Ms. Karuna has played an important role in organizing educational activities, mentoring students, coordinating volunteers, and supporting community outreach initiatives. Over time, she assumed greater responsibility within the organization and demonstrated strong leadership by guiding volunteers and helping ensure the effective delivery of programs.

Ms. Karuna also collaborated with the organization in conducting financial literacy workshops aimed at increasing financial awareness among community members. These sessions focused on practical topics such as budgeting, savings, banking fundamentals, and responsible financial decision-making.

Throughout her service, Ms. Karuna has consistently demonstrated initiative, leadership, responsibility, and a genuine commitment to community development. Her contributions have positively impacted numerous students and community members over several years of dedicated service.

We sincerely appreciate her commitment and wish her continued success in her future academic and professional pursuits.

Sincerely,

Asha Welfare Society
