This is to certify that Ms. Karuna Anie Kosle assisted with financial and operational record management at Khosala clinic from December 2023 to April 2025.

During this period, she supported the clinic's administrative and financial operations by maintaining bookkeeping records, tracking income and expenditures, organizing financial data, monitoring inventory levels, and maintaining records related to medication stock and supplies.

Ms. Karuna demonstrated strong attention to detail, analytical thinking, and a responsible approach to handling operational and financial information. Her work contributed to the maintenance of accurate records and the smooth functioning of daily administrative processes within the clinic.

Throughout her service, she displayed professionalism, reliability, and a strong willingness to learn. Her practical exposure to financial recordkeeping and operational management reflects maturity, accountability, and an interest in business and finance-related activities.

We appreciate her contributions and wish her continued success in her academic and professional journey.

Sincerely,

Dr. Cathreen
